

Local Buying Foundation

B.I.G. Futures Fund

As at 6 April 2020

Overview

The Local Buying Foundation aims to support Business, Economic and Industry Groups (B.I.G.) facing significant challenges from COVID-19 by establishing the B.I.G. Futures Fund.

The B.I.G Futures fund is to provide financial assistance for business, economic development and industry groups to continue delivering services to their membership/business base during the COVID-19 pandemic and beyond.

The B.I.G. Futures Fund will coincide with the release of the normal LBF funding rounds, with both funding rounds opening on Monday, 6 April 2020. The B.I.G. Futures Fund will create an opportunity for business, economic and industry groups to easily access funding with a quicker turnaround time.

The B.I.G. Futures Fund will only be available to business, economic and industry groups that are currently operating in the Local Buying Foundation footprints across New South Wales and Queensland.

LBF Funding Category Alignment

Applications will be assessed based on its alignment with our Business and Industry Innovation funding category as defined in the LBF Charter. Approvals of funding applications which seek to apply 'innovative processes or services' to support delivery of business development activities will be favoured. Applications approved through the B.I.G. Futures Fund are classified through the LBF as a rapid response Covid-19 initiative under the Business and Industry Innovation funding category. An example may be where a membership group requires financial support to invest in digital platforms or the development of a digital strategy to support continued engagement with their members/businesses.

FAQ

How much funding can I apply for?

The amount of funding approved per application is at the discretion of the Local Buying Foundation Advisory Committee and C-Res Board and dependant on the needs of individual organisations. There is no set minimum or maximum amount.

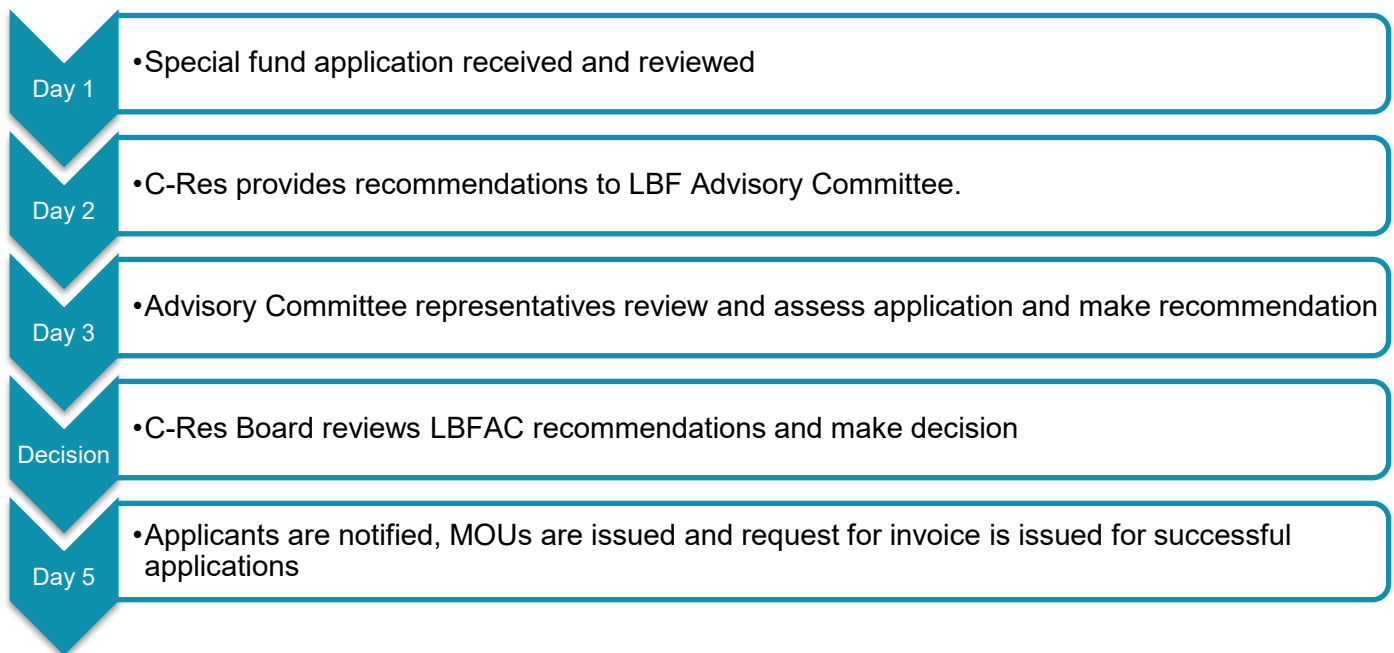

What is the difference between the standard LBF Funding Application and the B.I.G. Futures Fund application?

The standard LBF Funding rounds will still run as normal as per the LBF website. Applications through the LBF Funding Round will be reviewed at the LBF Advisory Committee Meeting post funding round closure, with information contained in our LBF National Funding Guidelines located on our website.

The B.I.G. Futures Fund is open for applications from the 6 April 2020, though criteria for these applications relates to providing direct and rapid financial support to business, economic and industry groups. Applications for the B.I.G. Futures Fund will be reviewed earlier than the standard LBF funding rounds, aiming to distribute funds to support business, economic and industry groups as fast as possible

What are the general timeframes for turnaround of funding applications?

The aim of the schedule below is to ensure LBF is providing a rapid response for decisions made and funds dispersed to support business, economic and industry groups.

Can I access the B.I.G. Futures Fund for my own business?

This funding is not available to individual businesses. The funding will be provided to active business, economic and industry groups to deliver programs, support resourcing and provide financial support to continue offering vital services to their members and/or businesses.

Can I access this funding for community projects and infrastructure?

The B.I.G. Futures Fund will only provide funding to Business, economic and Industry Groups which meet our funding criteria. For community support and infrastructure projects, you may wish to look into BHP's Vital Resources Fund.

If successful in Round 1 of the B.I.G Futures Fund, can I apply in further rounds?

Yes. If you are able to demonstrate a need for continual funding, you can reapply.

How to find out more or get help?

Our LBF Project Officers will work with funded organisations to identify long term projects that support their members in building sustainable business communities for the future, as well as support applications through the standard LBF funding application rounds.
